

MD.29.

Title Innovative clothes solutions for children with special needs

Authors Victoria Danila, Antonela Curteza, Stela Balan

Institution Technical University of Moldova
Technical University „Gh. Asachi” Iasi

Patent no. nr. 3888 WIPO85916, DM/203338

Description
EN

The novelty of children's clothing consists in the development of original products that are adaptable with innovative solutions that meet their special requirements. Generalization of a number of constructive and technical solutions for which they provide functions in relation to specific needs: action on the provision of emergency medical care. The product is easy to dressed and undressed. The products of clothing are projected to small caps and are designed for ease of access to medical devices.

Model overalls with long sleeves, for newborn girls and boys with weight up to 2 kg. The product is the straight silhouette, white. Access to medical devices is above the waist line, the hands, feet, the closure system is located on the top of the shoulder line, and on the trouser termination line. The materials are 100% cotton, non-allergic.

Class no. 14